

Dear Families:

I would like to thank you for being gracious enough to allow our staff to work with your children. It is never easy to walk away from a crying child. It takes a great deal of courage and I greatly appreciate your trust. All of our children are adjusting quite nicely. In order for you to gain a better perspective of life in our classrooms, one must first understand the mindset of a child. We strive to do this, but when all else fails, it helps to abide by the following piece of time tested information...

Toddler's Creed

If I want it, it's mine.
If I give it to you and change my mind later,
It's mine.

If I could take it away from you, it's mine.
If I had it a little while ago, it's mine.
If it's mine, it will never belong to anyone else,
No matter what.

If we are building something together,
All the pieces are mine.
If it looks just like mine, it's mine.

Now aren't you glad you leave the teaching to us? I know I am. Hope you enjoyed this!

Luann
